LIFE ADSORB in the spotlight on Aquagir

Published on 25 July 2025

They're talking about us!

The LIFE ADSORB-75 project has been featured on the Aquagir platform in an article dedicated to stormwater management in Paris.

This case study highlights our innovative system of planted filters with an adsorbing substrate, designed to depollute runoff from the ring road before it flows into the Seine.

A great recognition for this ambitious project led by the City of Paris and its partners!
