TECHNOLOGY

Site construction in Pictures

The City of Paris carried out a sanitation works program between July 2018 and December 2020 in the northeastern part of the Bois de Boulogne. The objective was to reduce pollutant discharges into the Seine from the Bois de Boulogne storm overflow and to eliminate the discharge of clear water from the Saint-James pond and the Neuilly pond into the combined sewer system of the municipality of Neuilly-sur-Seine.