Socio-economic impact assessment

The first aim of this project is to assess the impact of this structure on the management services and on the conditions of appropriation by the park's users.

Secondly, it aims to estimate the cost of depollution associated with this structure for various micropollutants, and to compare it with that of existing techniques on the market as part of a cost-effectiveness analysis.